Respected Sir/Madam,

We are pleased to inform you that MCX Investor Protection Fund (IPF) is organising the seventh edition of COMQUEST—a quiz on 'commodity derivatives' for students of educational institutions. The contest is known as Comquest 2025. This is an MCX-IPF initiative to create awareness about commodity derivatives among students as well as spread the word amongst the youth. The selection process, structure and dates that form part of the quiz are given below the mail as well as in the word file enclosed from page 2 onwards.

This will encourage young students to take a close look at commodity derivatives market, which will provide a good opening to the greenhorns to explore opportunities in the world of commodity trading and corporate price risk management using exchange-traded derivatives. This forum will also be a perfect conduit for a plethora of prospects in the commodity ecosystem worldwide.

We request you to encourage your students to participate in the above event. The first round is from Dec. 2 till Dec. 5 2024. Registrations are open till Dec. 1, 2024

There is no registration fee, but the students/ participant must register online.

Please share this registration link with the students.
